The Audit Committee gave an importance on reviewing inter-company transactions or transactions that may cause conflict of interest with the business group to be in accordance with the group policy for entering into connected transactions and a policy for purchase or lease of land for use in conducting business from connected persons by having the related management quarterly report inter-company transactions as announced by SEC and SET. As a result, the said transactions were conducted reasonably for the utmost benefits to the business group, and no beneficial to either party.

3. Review the Internal Control Systems

The Board of Directors recognized the importance of having good internal control systems and realized that it was an important duty that must be undertaken to ensure that the Company has appropriate and sufficient internal control systems to ensure that operations are effectively in line with the target, objectives, laws, and related requirements. In addition, the Audit Committee regularly reviewed the Internal Audit Department's audit reports on a monthly basis, covering the auditing of the Company's key work systems according to the plans approved by the Audit Committee as well as reviewed the adequacy of internal control systems according to the guidelines of the internal control of the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) by using the "Internal Control Sufficiency Evaluation Form" as specified by the SEC.

The Audit Committee was of the opinion that the Company's internal control systems were appropriate and effective enough for business operations. There were no significant issues that may affect the Company's operations.

4. Supervise the Internal Audit

The Audit Committee supervised the Internal Audit Department to be independent and directly report to the Audit Committee as specified in the Internal Audit Department Charter.

The Audit Committee reviewed the annual audit plan, plan implementation, and internal audit results by giving suggestions and following up the significant issues in order to create good corporate governance and sufficient internal control, including reviewing the Internal Audit Department Charter and the independence and adequacy of various resources for the operations of the Internal Audit Department. As a result, the Audit Committee was of the opinion that the Company's internal audit system was suitable, sufficient, and effective. The performance of the Internal Audit Department was in accordance with the specified goals.

5. Consider the Appointment of Auditors and Communication of Significant Matters between the Audit Committee and the Auditors

The Audit Committee considered the selection of auditors by taking into account their independence, quality of the previous audit, skills, knowledge, and their experience including the appropriation of the audit fees. The Audit Committee adopted the resolution of proposal to the Board of Directors to consider and get approval from the shareholders' meeting to appoint Miss Pornthip Rimdusit, the certified auditor no. 5565, and / or Mr. Watchara Pattarapitak, the certified auditor no. 6669, and / or Mr. Krit Dhammathatto, the certified auditor no. 11915 from KPMG Phumchai Audit Limited as auditors of the Company for 2023 including the remuneration for the said auditors in 2023.

The Audit Committee held one meeting with the auditors, without the presence of the management, to discuss the independence in the performance of duties as well as the changes in material issues derived from the financial statements review and audit in which the auditors notified that no material accounting issues were found and received good cooperation for the performance of duties.

6. Review Legal Compliance

The Audit Committee reviewed and supervised the Company and subsidiaries to operate the business in compliance with the rules, regulations, and policies of the securities and exchange law, the regulations of SEC and SET, and the other laws related to the Company's businesses. The Company established a Compliance Unit to oversee such compliance. As a result, the Audit Committee found no significant indication of non-compliance and/or operation which is conflict to relevant laws, rules and regulations.

7. Review Good Corporate Governance

The Audit Committee reviewed the Company's corporate governance to ensure that the Company had the appropriate and effective corporate governance process and continuously promoted and followed up the progress of the good corporate governance development process by providing guidelines and recommendations on internal control improvements that were necessary for the Company. To develop the said process, the Audit Committee was of the opinion that the Company should continue developing and improving its good corporate governance.
